CITY MONEY.

Speculation as to the Bank Bids.

The custody of the city funds is still the leading topic among the bankers and financiers, as well as the members of the council, and all sorts of speculation is indulged in about the City Bank's bid of 4 1/2 per cent.

bank can pay this rate on daily balances and make any money; in fact, they say that there is an actual loss, and that there is something behind this bid. Among some

V. Hellman, of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, has outgenerated the whole banking fraternity, and virtually secured control of the funds. The most generally accepted theory is that there was an understanding between Mr. Hellman and the Merchants' Bank of the City Bank, by which the latter was made impossible for them to miss. It has been claimed that even at 4 per cent. the bank was nothing in it for the bank that took the money at that figure, and on this limit, virtually handling the money for him, in order to carry his point. The of the State Loan and Trust Company was 41-16 per cent., just a shade of Mr. Hellman's bid, and the officers of the corporation were confident that they would get it. It is claimed that Mr. Hellman in pany's bid, as on Tuesday morning he went to the City Clerk's office, as heretofore published in THE TIMES, and demanded to see the bids, saying he had been informed that there was something wrong. Mr. Childress was at the Clerk's office at or about the same time to put in his bid, and it is claimed that Mr. Hellman, on

A TIMES reporter yesterday called on Mr. Gilman, and when told the story, in sub-

He said that he had put in a bid in good faith, at 4 per cent, 1 per cent. higher than his former bid, because money is in more active demand now than it was if Mr. Childress gets the custody of the funds he will not take $1 of it. When Mr. Childress was elected County Treasurer he offered to allow one-quarter of the funds to remain on deposit in his bank, but the offer was declined. All he had to say was that if the Council could go before the people on record of having kept the taxpayers of could stand it. There has already been paid over $48,000 from the county for the pool fund, and by the first of the month there will be $100,000 due from the State. This, in addition to $100,000 from the sale of school bonds, and $30,000 from delinquent taxes, will bring the total on the 1st of February up to between $200,000 and $250,000.

None of the members of the Council have as yet expressed themselves on the subject. The whole matter will come before the Finance Committee of Council at its meeting this afternoon, and some agreement will probably be reached as to what sort of a

THE CITRUS FAIR.

The Committee Finally Decides to Hold It.
Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the Trust Fair Committee met in the office of the Chamber of Commerce, there being present F. A. Miller of Riverside, H. K. New of Orange, Senator McComas of Several members of the committee were evidently on the warpath. They jumped George Washington Hancock of Sacramento and the newspapers of Southern California who have attempted to shake ty. They claimed that it will be almost [possible] to get up a fair now, for the reason that the producers have dis-posed of their fruit and made no provision for a fair. After considerable talk the committee took a vote, which stood two for a fair and three against it. The committee then took an adjournment until 9

At the afternoon meeting C. M. Wells was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of A. H. Denker. They then considered the vote as to the holding of a fair, and decided to hold it, there not being a vote against the measure. Messrs. Wells, Germain and Gray were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for the will now go to work and do all in its power to make the fair a success.

The committee adjourned to meet next

THE COURTS.

A QUEER BACKDOWN OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

He Refuses to Prosecute Four Chinamen Arrested for Conducting a Lottery Game—The "Fence" Trial Waxing Warmly Personal—A Libel Suit.

The District Attorney's office took a stand yesterday morning in certain Chinese lottery cases which brought them temporarily to a standstill. Four Chinamen, Fong Tag, Ah Jim, Eh Chow and Ah Guy were arrested about two weeks ago by Deputy Constables Charles Smith and George Anderson, charged with dealing a lottery game in Chinatown. They were admitted to bail, and employed Messrs. Brunson, Wilson & Lamine to defend them. It was said at the time that they proposed to make a test case of it. The complaining witness, who swore to the complaint, which was made out in the District Attorney's office by Assistant District Attorney McComas, was a Chinaman named Ah Ye. Under his pilotage the constables went to the place of business where the game was being dealt, and raided the establishment while it was in full blast. They knocked at the door, were refused admittance, and kicked it open, surprising the four Mongolians arrested, who were dealers in the act of putting the lay-out into a trunk. All the articles, consisting of tickets, charts and money were seized and the men brought to Justice Lockwood's court as stated.

Yesterday morning the case came up for trial. A jury had been applied for in the case, had been granted, and the panel was in attendance at the hour set for trial. When Justice Lockwood opened court no District Attorney appeared, and notice was sent over to District Attorney Kelly. The Court did not wait, as L. F. Fisher, Esq., was present as special counsel, and the work of impaneling the jury began. The requisite number of jurors was called into the box, and some preliminary questions had been put to them when District Attorney Kelly arrived in answer to the summons.

He stopped the proceedings, and addressing the Court said that he did not wish the prosecution to go ahead, that he was satisfied there is no case against the men, and he is not responsible for the complaint.

The jurors in the box and the courtroom looked somewhat astonished at this sudden turn of the case, and Justice Lockwood seemed more than astonished.

Mr. Kelly went on to say that he has information that the case is one of spite work, and the result of the scheming of a rival lottery dealer. He declined to have anything further to do with the case, or to go on with the prosecution of it, and left the courtroom.

The statements of the District Attorney having been made in the presence of the jurors, Justice Lockwood decided that he would not go on with the case at that time. He appointed Mr. B. Harrison and R. Dunnigan, who were present, to assist Mr. Fisher in the conduct of the prosecution, and continued it until January 27th. The counsel for the defendants appeared to be well satisfied with the attitude of affairs, and at the black-eye which the case had received from the District Attorney. The developments in the case will be watched with considerable interest, because Mr. Smith and Mr. Anderson claim that they caught the dealers in the act, and that the case against them is a strong one.

THE "FENCE" CASE.
The trial of Jack Dunn, charged with buying a stolen gun from Dock Dowling, knowing it to be stolen, occupied the attention of Judge McKinley again yesterday, and the case was nearly finished. The trial was enlivened by the frequent interchange of rough compliments between Deputy District Attorney Hardesty and Messrs. Shinn and Ling, counsel for the defendant. Mr. Hardesty frequently twitted the counsel about their characters, alleging sarcastically that they are not gentlemen and that he did not feel like acting toward them as if they were gentlemen. The remarks grew so heated finally that the Court was obliged to interfere. Mr. Ling exclaiming that he had repeatedly asked the Court to protect him from the insinuations of Mr. Hardesty, and if it went any further he would protect himself.

The defense put several witnesses on the stand during the morning. George Bush, John A. Abbott and the defendant, Bush swore that Dock Dowling, who swears that he sold the gun to Dunn, told him in the City Jail that he would get even with Dunn for throwing him out of his house, and made various other statements showing the falsity of his testimony on the witness stand.

Johnny Abbott testified that he was at Dunn's "crib," on New High street, and seeing the gun, wanted to buy it, but Dunn said he could not sell it until he saw Dowling, as it belonged to him. The defendant, Dunn, also testified that he simply loaned the money to Dowling, and the latter had the privilege of redeeming it.

These witnesses received a veritable "roast" from Officers Auble, Walling, Hawley, Bogert and Stephenson, who were introduced as to their characters. It was shown by the officers that their reputations were bad as to truth, honesty and integrity. Johnny Abbott, the notorious opium fiend and "mac," did not take kindly to the dose administered to him. He writhed under the truth, and his sallow and debauched features grew paler and paler with malignant rage as the officers put his reputation in its true light.

These witnesses testified with much gusto that Dock Dowling, who stole the gun in question, is an opium fiend himself, a thief and a felon, and lawyers were easy upon both sides. But the spectators were greatly edified at the air of righteous indignation with which such men as Bush, Abbott and Dunn spoke of the injustice of believing a "mac" thief and opium fiend instead of what they might say.

The prosecution put in considerable evidence in rebuttal, among the witnesses being Annie Wood, the woman who lived at Jack Dunn's crib, who displayed a disposition to shield the defendant as much as possible, and to forget what she said at the preliminary examination.

The arguments in the case lasted until night, Judge McKinley wishing to finish the case. The counsel on both sides spoke eloquently about the liars on the opposite side, and urged the jury to disregard the statements of the witnesses in the case, each side characterizing the material witnesses on the other side as altogether unworthy of belief, and the jury looking as if it would not take much to make them of that opinion. Mr. Shinn did not finish the closing argument for the defense until such a late hour that an adjournment was taken until this morning, when Mr. Hardesty will close for the prosecution, and the case will go to the jury.

PEDRO MERANCIA.
A sickly-looking Mexican, was tried before Judge Cheney yesterday upon a charge of adultery, alleged to have been committed with Margarita Murietta, wife of Guadalupe Murietta. The parties interested are of the humbler walks of life, and have been residing around El Puente and Azusa. Mrs. Murietta left her husband last fall, and evidence was introduced to show that she had lived with Merancia in adultery during portions of September and October of last year. Nearly all the witnesses gave their testimony through an interpreter. The witnesses testified that it created a scandal in their neighborhoods in Azusa and Puente, and it was general talk that Mrs. Murietta left her husband for Merancia. The arguments were brief, but as it was late when they closed, Judge Cheney adjourned until this morning, when he will charge the jury.

In Judge Cheney's court, in the case of B. Chadwick, indicted upon a charge of extortion, it was agreed by stipulation that the testimony of the Grand Jury taken upon a motion to dismiss indictment No. 672, against the defendant, may be used in the present indictment.

A CHARGE OF FALSE PRETENSES.
J. F. Bedwell was arrested and arraigned before Justice Savage yesterday afternoon on a complaint sworn out by J. S. Chadwick, acting as agent for B. F. Getchell. The complaint charges Bedwell with attempting to obtain a loan of $100 from Chadwick under false pretenses. It is alleged that Bedwell represented himself to be the owner of 320 acres of land near Artesia, of $1500 worth of cattle, and of having incumbrances upon a 20-acre tract of land. Mr. Chadwick says that upon investigating the nature of the security sought to be given by the defendant, he discovered that it was worthless, and the loan was not made. It is said that the defendant has been in similar trouble before. There is a complaint now pending against him in the Superior Court, and one of his bondsmen was greatly exercised yesterday over a rumor that Bedwell was preparing to leave the country with his family. He went to the District Attorney to surrender him, but not being able to get the bail-bond, could not perfect his arrangements. Justice Savage held Bedwell to answer the charge brought by Chadwick, and fixed his cash bond at $200, which was furnished.

NEW CASES.
A libel suit for $25,000 was begun yesterday against the Herald by Manuel Lugo. A short article appeared in the Herald in reference to the arrest of Lugo upon a charge of disturbance of the peace. The complaint alleges that in the article he is accused of having served two terms in the State penitentiary, which he alleges is not true, and upon this basis his suit for damages.

Suit was begun by the State Loan and Trust Company vs. the Second-street Cable Railway Company upon a promissory note for $10,000. Judgment is asked for that amount and $2000 attorney's fees.

Harriet Cudeback began suit against C. B. Wilson to foreclose a mortgage securing two notes for $200 each.

W. C. Cormieck began suit against W. H. George to restrain defendant from alleged trespassing upon his property.

George H. Bonebrake began three suits against M. A. Martin and a large number of defendants to bring about a settlement in connection with transactions by the Viendli Land and Water Company.

A. F. Abbott began suit against the Fomir Iron Works to secure a judgment for $5000 damages, alleged to have been caused by the defendant by reason of its failure to carry out a contract for hay presses.

NOTES.
In the case of San Bernardino county vs. Theo. Reichert, a motion for a new trial was denied by Judge McKinley yesterday.

Lorenzo Talmo, charged with burglary, withdrew his plea of not guilty before Judge McKinley yesterday, pleaded guilty, and his crime was fixed at burglary in the first degree. He will be sentenced January 24th.

Informations were given by the District Attorney yesterday against J. A. Lebanti for burglary, William Ryan for burglary and J. H. Snowden for seduction under promise of marriage.

SAN BERNARDINO'S MYSTERY.
A Letter Concerning the Body Recently Found.

Chief of Police Glass yesterday received the following letter from Dr. W. B. Sawyer, Deputy Coroner of San Bernardino county, which explains itself:

JANUARY 22, 1890.
To Chief of Police, Los Angeles:—Dear Sir: An unknown man was found dead here yesterday. Shot; probably suicide. Nothing to identify except a postal card addressed to "Mari Fisher, Boston." He was apparently a foreigner, five feet four or eight or nine inches in height, weighing 100 pounds; stocky build, light complexion, blue eyes, small mustache; hair and mustache very light in color; no scars or marks on face or body; mouth drawn a little to one side; age probably 25 or 28 years. Have had body photographed; will send copy as soon as ready. Can you do anything to help identify? Wore derby hat, blue flannel shirt, one-button cutaway sack coat, and dark grayish-brown overcoat. Let me know as soon as possible if you have or can dig up any clue. Yours truly,
W. B. SAWYER, M. D.,
Deputy Coroner San Bernardino County.

The body referred to is that found in the foothills three miles north of San Bernardino Sunday morning, information of which was telephoned to police headquarters by Sheriff Seymour, as it was supposed to be that of L. M. Dyer, who disappeared from this city some weeks ago. Mr. Bell, Dyer's brother-in-law, went to San Bernardino to see the body, and saw that it was not that of his relative. So far as known, no one else is reported missing in this locality, so that the mystery, instead of being solved, is only increased by the finding of another body.

SISTERS' SCHOOL.
The Corner-stone To Be Laid To-day.

The corner-stone of the new orphan asylum and school building, of the Sisters of Charity at the corner of Stevenson and Boyle avenues, Boyle Heights, will be laid tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rt. Rev. Bishop Mora officiating. A large number of invitations have been sent out, and it is the desire of the Sisters to have as many attend as possible. The following interesting order of exercises has been arranged for the occasion.

Overture, orchestra; address, Rev. Thomas Shaw; ceremony of laying the corner-stone, Rt. Rev. Bishop Mora; music; remarks, President W. H. Workman; music; remarks, Mayor H. T. Hazzard; music; address, Hon. K. F. del Valle; music; address, Hon. Stephen M. White.

The ceremonies will be under the direction of the following committees: Committee of Arrangements—S. Grant, Joseph Messner, J. P. Moran, A. McNally, J. C. Quinn, W. H. Workman, V. Ponet, J. K. Chalmers.

Committee on Ways and Means—John Kenaley, D. A. Moriarty, Frank Sabich, J. C. Kays, W. H. Workman, A. McNally.

Literary Committee—K. F. del Valle, Hon. S. M. White, W. A. Ryan, A. G. Gardner, Joseph Messner.

Committee on Invitation—Dr. N. Lindendfeldt, J. H. Clancy, J. H. Dockweiler, J. P. Moran, L. G. Le Sage.

THE RESCUING COMMITTEE.
Report of Its Third Week's Effort.

The secretary of the committee reports as follows:
Total amount to be raised.....$80,000
Amount reported to date.....$1,250
Amount added to Jan. 24th.....1,380
Total balance to be raised.....$81,970

The following are the names of the donors this week: S. A. Mattison, J. C. Salisbury, E. A. Miller, H. L. MacNeil and a "friend," cash and real estate estimated at $1250.

The account now stands:
Cash subscriptions from eight persons.....$2,420
Real estate from 10 persons (estimated).....4,780
Total.....$7,200

One of the gifts this week was unrelated $200 cash. Many new friends have been found who will do all they can afford to do to save the Young Men's Christian Association building.

It would be a great help if the friends would decide more promptly just what they will do. The committee must make its final report to the contributors February 11th and its work ought to aggregate $35,000 to meet its instructions.

BIG ROBBERY

BY BAGGAGE-MASTERS AND MESSENGERS.

They Have Been Hiding Passengers' Baggage for Eight Months, and Their Stealings Aggregate $200,000—Twenty-three of the Culprits Arrested.

About eight months ago a system of robbery was commenced on the railroads between this city and New York. Through passengers would check their trunks at New York through to San Francisco or Los Angeles, and on arriving at their destination they were thunderstruck to discover that their baggage had been tampered with and their valuables taken. Complaints were made at headquarters and claims filed for the value of the stolen goods. Every precaution possible was taken by the railroad companies over whose lines the baggage was shipped, but no trace of the thieves could be found.

The best detectives in the employ of the railroad and express companies were put to work, but the thieves proved too much for them, and trunks were opened and rifled under their very noses.

At one time when there were fifteen or twenty detectives strung out along the line, a wealthy lady who had just made the trip put in an appearance and told how she had been robbed of $15,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry placed in her trunk in New York. The thieves would take anything from silk dresses to diamonds, and in several cases valuable guns were taken.

This kind of thing went on until over two hundred thousand dollars' worth of claims were stacked up. Finally the railroad people made up their minds to employ Pinkerton's detective agency, and within eleven days after some of the best men in the agency had been put to work 23 men were arrested and held in jail at New Orleans, where they are to be tried in a few days.

A few days ago Capt. J. J. Risdon, one of Pinkerton's chief men, who worked up the case and made the arrests, arrived in California. This is Capt. Risdon's second visit to the coast on this business. He is out here now to look after witnesses, and will pass through Los Angeles today on his way to New Orleans. He has several witnesses with him, and will pick up more here who are waiting for him. One of the witnesses, L. B. Bickwith, was seen at his hotel by a Times reporter last night and questioned about the matter.

"Yes," said he, "I am a witness in the case. I checked my baggage in New Orleans, and when I reached this city I found that my trunk had been tampered with. I don't know at what point on the road it was robbed, but 23 of the supposed robbers have been arrested, and I am to go back and testify against them. As I understand it, they are messengers and baggage-masters. They formed a combination and have been working the roads for about eight months. There were 24 of them, and the ring-leader is the only one who has escaped. It is believed that he is down in Mexico, and Pinkerton thinks he will get him. Some of the stolen property has been recovered, among which is my property, and I am wanted principally to identify it. It is one of the boldest cases of the kind that has been carried on for some time, and it is to be hoped that the rascals will be convicted."

A CAROUSAL.

Three Jolly "Hashers" Out for a Time.

Three "hashers"—Harry Macbeth, E. Wilson and Frank Conroy—started out Wednesday afternoon to enjoy themselves, and the whole party succeeded in getting comfortably full. They first went to Kennedy's saloon, on Spring street, where two of them indulged in an impromptu prize-fight for the drinks, while one acted as referee, and Burnett got a bad smash in the face. They then adjourned to the Anchor saloon, on Main street, where they continued their carouse, after which they went to the Olympic on First street, and remained in one of the private rooms until they were ordered out of the place by the proprietor. When the party started out Conroy had a gold watch, and when he got sober enough to know what he was about, he discovered that his timepiece was missing, and yesterday reported his loss to the police. The detectives are looking into the case, and think they will get the guilty party.

Among the orange groves of the beautiful San Gabriel Valley, 8 miles from Los Angeles, C. H. MERRILL, Manager (during the summer season manager of the Crawford House, White Mountains, N. H.)

If you cannot go out to the Raymond and spend a day, a week, or a month, or the whole season, then go out and stay a few hours. It is well worth your while to see the magnificent view from the piazzas; and that view alone will well repay you, although there are many other interesting features—especially the grand display of flowers in the hotel grounds, which are now under the charge of Mr. C. H. Hoyer, the celebrated landscape gardener, formerly of Hovey's Nurseries, Cambridge, Mass. Tourists visiting Los Angeles should make a trip to the Raymond, even if their stay there must necessarily be brief. There are frequent trains between Los Angeles and the Raymond, and the Raymond is an excellent starting-point for a drive through the San Gabriel Valley, in which are situated the San Gabriel Mission Church, Rose's winery, Lucky Baldwin's stock farm, the Sierra Madre Villa, and many other places of interest. Full particulars regarding board and other matters can be obtained by addressing C. H. Merrill, Manager of the Raymond, East Pasadena, California.

"DICK GRID for Senator" is a suggestion of the San Diego Union. The Union appears to have a horizontal cabeza.

FOREPAUGH is the latest influenza victim. When the grip came down, a circus man nobody can certainly be considered safe from its attacks.

The Sacramento Bee, which lately put in a new Goss perfecting press, has a new and very peculiar dress. It is strictly original, and it is well to see a paper have the courage to be original. James McClatchy's sons are lively boys.

The long career of deception and crookedness which has characterized the official life of Col. W. H. H. Russell, as commander of the Seventh Regiment, has culminated in a court of inquiry, which has recommended a court-martial.

SCRIBNER'S and the Cosmopolitan ran the Century and Harper's very close in their January issues, as far, at least, as illustrations go. The race between these great monthly magazines is like that between the great Atlantic steamship lines—each trying to break the others' records.

SPEAKING of the fine Italian hand, and the recent marks thereof, it has been taken for granted that the populace was fully aware that THE TIMES keeps one or more able stenographers on its staff who perpetrate that sort of a "handwrite." The fact ought to be so obvious that explanation should be unnecessary. This paper is not published for the benefit of dunces or vicious "conjurmen." Perceive you the drift of this remark?

THE "Herald of Banning" has issued a handsome publication in the shape of a pamphlet setting forth the advantages of that mountain spot as a health resort. The array of testimony is skillful and strong. Banning has a valuable friend in the person of Louis Munson, editor of its Herald.

JOHN R. BERRY, editor of the San Diego Union, has received the appointment as Collector of the Port of San Diego. The appointment is not one of the original slate appointments, and was not originally favored by either Senator Stanford or Gen. Vandever. The Senator's original choice was Mr. Ferry, a kinsman of Hon. Thomas W. Ferry, formerly President of the Senate. It seems, however, that Mr. Berry, who came into the field late, was united upon, or at least knocked down the plum. Perhaps he had a vice-president on his side. Let him explain through the Union.

The Express of yesterday contained an editorial article in its local columns headed "Vultures in Waiting." The substance of it was a statement that a class of ward politicians and "rounders" are waiting with anxiety for a boodle which they expect will materialize for use against sewage propositions that will be offered the voters. In reply to this insinuation, it is only necessary to remark that any boodle which comes to the front during the coming sewer elections will be found on the side of the big sack—somewhere in the direction of Ballona—not on the side of opposition. Such a silly attempt to fool the people as this was tried and fully exploded just before the late sewer-bond election.

The City Council will meet this afternoon in special session to wrestle with the question of retrenchment. We have already expressed the views held by a majority of the citizens on this subject—that there is a crying necessity for such a step; that there is always considerable elasticity in municipal finances; that the way to retrench is to retrench; and that to do so the City Fathers will have to be willing to yield a little of their own personal wishes in the matter if they desire to accomplish anything practical. If the city moneys are loaned in accordance with the bid made that will go a long way toward filling up the gap between receipts and expenditures, and we trust that the Councilmen will do their share toward making up the balance.

THE MUNICIPALITY'S ATTEMPT AT TOWN-PAINTING.

A correspondent writes to complain of a street-numbering ordinance, which was adopted by the Council on December 20th, and approved by the Mayor on the 21st. This ordinance provides for the re-numbering of the houses of Los Angeles in such manner that all numbers under 100 shall be eliminated, thus changing the number of every house in the city. The section of the ordinance which makes this provision—an ordinance, which, by the way, has probably come to the attention of very few householders, as it was only published once in the afternoon paper on Tuesday last—reads as follows:

Sec. 5. One hundred numbers, or as many thereof as may be necessary, shall be allotted to each block. No. 100 shall be the first number used at the respective beginning points on the sides of the streets which are to contain the even numbers, and 101 for the sides which are to contain the odd numbers. At the beginning of the second block from the starting point, the first numbers shall be 200 and 201 respectively, and so continue throughout the system.

This ordinance, which carries with it a penalty of from ten to thirty dollars, or of imprisonment from ten to thirty days, or both, in case the numbers are not altered within five days, went into effect immediately after the publication of this modest notice. We understand that it was once before vetoed by the Mayor. It is not easy to see by what method of reasoning he brought himself to reconsider his action. The ordinance is certainly too sweeping in character. It will entail the alteration of every number upon every house or store on every street in the city. The cost—amounting in the aggregate probably to $20,000—will of course be quite an item; but by far the worst effect of the change will be the terrible confusion which will thus result—and continue to a greater or less extent for a year or more—in the delivery of mail and the finding of addresses by persons who are unaware of the change. Number 120 now becomes 220, number 220 becomes 320, and so on throughout the entire city. It is all right to correct any confusion that at present exists in the numbering of houses—there undoubtedly is much confusion—but to do this it is not necessary to order every house in the city re-numbered under penalty of a heavy fine for non-compliance within five days. Such a mandate savors too much of Paris municipal autocracy in the palmy days of Baron Haussmann and the Third Empire. If the Council had ever exhibited a proof of the possession of a little such backbone in other matters demanded by nine-tenths of the citizens, such as the keeping of sidewalks unobstructed and making contractors toe the mark, there would have been no complaint. As it is, there will undoubtedly be a very severe and protracted protest from householders, a majority of whom undoubtedly now learn the true nature of the ordinance for the first time.

The city officials say that the object of the ordinance is to teach the people that 101 is next to First street and so forth, on streets running north and south—what is known as the Philadelphia system. Even this does not apply to east and west streets. In any case, the general verdict will be that the cost in money and inconvenience is too great a price to pay for the promised benefit.

There is one class of citizens who will, undoubtedly be disposed to think the action of the Council a wise one. It need scarcely be said that we refer to the sign painters.

The question as to whether Mr. John W. Green, affidavit-maker, etc., was "hung up" at the White House is settled by a Washington dispatch published this morning. An accurate and life-like sketch of the operation of suspension also appears on this page. The news comes by wire, but the oil painting reached this office by grapevine, as did that specimen of a fine Italian "handwrite" with which THE TIMES beat the opposition on Wednesday morning. The news heretofore published in these columns in regard to the suspension of Green's appointment is thus confirmed. We never doubted it.

A New York dispatch announces that a cigarette trust has been formed there, with a capital of $25,000,000. The stereotyped statement is added, by a prominent member of the trust, that the price of cigarettes would probably remain the same. Without desiring to be rude, we must be permitted to remark that we don't believe a word of it. In this case, however, we are not at all sorry.

The Santa Ana Blade has commenced a new volume. It is two years and a half old as a daily, and its weekly edition is in its fourth year. After many mutations of policy and management, the paper has settled down into a good little daily newspaper, having for its chief aim the development of Orange county. The Blade is independent and aggressive.

The New York Home Journal says truly when it remarks on advertising: The prevailing idea seems to be that the greater the variety of types used in the advertisement the handsomer it is, and black rules and fancy dashes and "ornaments" are brought in to assist in deforming the advertisement. This is all wrong. The simplest is always the best.

The Los Angeles county delinquent tax list fills 16 pages of a big blanket newspaper, says the Oakland Tribune. This is false. The county tax list has not yet been published.

The San José Mercury published a very fine annual number of 24 pages, with a cover lithographed in colors. It contained many illustrations of local buildings and scenery, and a large amount of valuable information concerning Santa Clara county.

The recent default and disgrace of an officer of one of our prominent local political organizations—the Union League club—is another example showing the necessity for more critical caution in the selection of officers for such bodies. It is not always that the most competent, honest and worthy men come forward to seek public or private honors; and it frequently happens that the most plausible, clamorous and importunate are the least trustworthy. In the case in question it is even intimated, very broadly, that the guilty person was known, or suspected, to have recently gone wrong in another capacity. The club could have done no less than it has done—viz., turn the wrong-doer out—without smirching its own skirts; and to conceal the offense and the offender's name from the public, as some have urged, would not have mended matters. The fact of the disgraced man's invalidism is unfortunate, and attracts sympathy to him, while not condoning his breach of the first commandment.

THE Fresno Republican has evidently the right conception of the proper and improper course of a newspaper. It says:

The newspaper that does not hesitate to rebuke a man when he is in the wrong is the one that retains the confidence and respect of the people. The newspaper that takes a scattering shot at the poor, friendly laborer who happens to get into trouble, and winks at corruption in high places or excuses the man who holds a good position and has money, will become known to the people and despised in the end.

A COMPLETE set of the London Art Journal from the year 1850 has just been added to the shelves of the Public Library. This acquisition will be a very valuable addition to the art department. The first installment of classical music is now ready for circulation.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Roland Reed's production of the really good comedy, A Woman Hater, continues to draw paying houses. It will be repeated again tonight.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE.—One of the regulation variety pieces, rejoicing for some undiscoverable reason in the title of A Social Scission, was put on the boards at this theatre last evening for a run of four nights. What little plot there is in the piece seems taken from Old Jed Proddy, but the rest is of no consequence. There is some very fair singing by a male quartette and also by Kate Sprague, one of the two ladies who compose the feminine part of the company. Some instrumental solos were also much applauded. The performance has hardly enough merit, as a whole, to insure a run, but it has the negative virtue of being free from any objectionable features.

THE PATTI SUBSCRIPTION.—The management has decided that the Los Angeles public do not want Italian opera on the terms advertised, and therefore the Patti subscription, the money for which was to be raised by the public, will be abandoned. The company, which has been paid the same on account of the expected performances.

PEARL OF PEKIN.—This burlesque opera is drawing good houses in San Francisco this week. The whole company, 65 in number, will be here in season for the opening, on Tuesday next, at the theatre, where they will have to play for the week against the Emma Gray Company at the opera-house. The company for the Pearl of Pekin is said to have cost $30,000.

ILLINOIS HALL.—The original Fisk Jubilee Singers (colored) will give their first concert in this city tonight in Illinois Hall. They are making a tour of the State, and the press in other cities where they have already appeared speaks of them in the most complimentary terms. The Jubilee Singers should draw well here.

A Spiteful Journalistic Offender. (Anselm Gazette.)
The Santa Ana Free Press man is lashing himself into a fury because a couple of Los Angeles papers have switched him off their exchange list. The jejeune Santa Ana publication is very reckless in its comments thereon, as it invariably is in its references to this journal. A newspaper that will publish a willful falsehood about another, and fails to retract when shown its error, ought to be cut off the exchange list of every reputable paper in the country.

Deserves the Highest Praise. (Le Goulois.)
We have received a copy of the Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES. This handsome and instructive pamphlet of 48 pages contains a mass of information. It contains also views of various public buildings, maps of the city and county of Los Angeles, and of Southern California. Such publications as this deserve the highest praise. They make the resources of Southern California known abroad, and contribute powerfully to immigration and the prosperity of the country.

Praise for Sir Rupert. (Anselm Gazette.)
The Los Angeles Times Annual has been received. As usual, it is way ahead of its rivals, and it is this year perhaps better than ever before. It is beautiful, readable, artistic and valuable. We take the following from its pages regarding Anaheim (quoting):

"Good Proof" (Ontario Record.)
We have received the Los Angeles Times Annual, a handsome 48-page number in engraved cover. Certainly such a stroke of enterprise as that is a good proof that a country must be prosperous that makes such special possible and successful.

Three Men Scalded to Death. GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.), Jan. 23.—At the vessel works this evening John Gibson fell into a tank of boiling water. Andrew Killian and George Kingsworth went to his rescue and also fell in. All three were fatally scalded.

A Victim of "Grip" Suicides. NEWARK (N. J.), Jan. 23.—Gottlieb Muter, a civil engineer of this city, committed suicide this morning during a fit of temporary insanity produced by a grippa.

Raining at Stockton. STOCKTON, Jan. 23.—After a high wind from the south it commenced raining this evening with indications of a heavy storm. The roads are in bad condition, and business is dull, farmers being unable to get into town.

A Noted Outlaw Shot. ARDMORE (I. T.), Jan. 23.—"Jim July" alias Short, husband of the late female outlaw, Belle Starr, was fatally wounded at Caddo Creek today while resisting arrest.

Delaware Fruit Trees Nipped. NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—From Delaware comes the complaint that the present cold weather has caught the peach and apricot buds in full bloom.

Wife-murder and Suicide. CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Nicholas Meyer murdered his wife before noon today and then committed suicide. Jealousy was the cause.

Carried Off by "La Grippe." QUEBEC, Jan. 23.—Monsieur Legare, Vicar-General of this archdiocese, died today of la grippe.

"Exceedingly Creditable." (Marysville Democrat.)
The LOS ANGELES TIMES, with characteristic enterprise, has issued a magnificent special edition, descriptive of Los Angeles and the other counties comprising Southern California. It is an exceedingly creditable number, and hardly any wonder we could say of it would be too laudatory.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The nomination of Green to be postmaster at Los Angeles has been "hung up" by the President, at the request of Vice-President Morton.

The Reported Massacre of Siberian Exiles Confirmed.

A Famous French Murderer Betrayed by His Paramour—Great Storm in England—Other Foreign News.

By Telegram to The Times.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Times says: "The Samoan treaty bears handsome testimony to Bismarck's reasonableness. That so complete an equilibrium should be established is more than we could have expected from him. That he quietly consented to the prohibition of arms and alcohol and to the land clauses is probably due to British influence. Their insertion in such a treaty is a remarkable event in the history of the relations of civilized with semi-civilized races."

The Standard says that while it is good theoretically it is likely that difficulties will arise. In any case provision is made for a revision.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The publication of the Samoan treaty in Berlin has led to its denunciation by the German press of both parties. Dispatches here say that radical and Conservative papers alike call it a "German retreat."

EXILES MASSACRED.

The Story of the Slaughter in Siberia Confirmed.

BUFFALO (N. Y.), Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] George Kennan of Siberia fame tonight received a letter from a Siberian exile, which had evidently traveled a clandestine route before reaching this country. It comprises 86 pages of microscopic chirography, of which Kennan deciphered enough to prove to his satisfaction that the rumored massacre of exiles by Russian soldiers at Yakoutsk, which has been vigorously denied by the government, is an indisputable fact.

NOTES FROM ABROAD.

A French Murderer Betrayed by His Paramour.

PARIS, Jan. 23.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Bompard, the mistress of Eyraud, who is accused of murder, has confessed that he murdered Gouffé. She declares that while they were in San Francisco he wanted her to ensnare French admirers in order that he might murder them. It is said that Eyraud has written to the police from New York offering to confront Bompard. Another report says that Eyraud is hidden in Paris.

GREAT STORM IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A great storm of wind and rain prevails in South England and enormously high tides are the consequence. The Severn has overflowed its banks Gloucestershire is submerged, with great loss of property. The Portsmouth and South Wales railways have temporarily stopped. The damage done to the steam is supposed to be enormous, as reported in detail.

SOCIALISTS GAIN A POINT.

BERLIN, Jan. 23.—The Reichstag today rejected the expulsion clause in the Socialist Bill, and decided by a vote of 106 to 111 to make the measure permanent.

The Tailors' Association. CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The closing session of the National Merchant Tailors' Association was held today. The report of the Strike Committee, which was adopted, held that the working day should consist of at least 10 hours, and that each man should be paid wages enough to enable him to live decently. Differences should be settled by arbitration. James S. Burbank of Boston was elected president.

Fatal Explosion. CHARLOTTE (N. C.), Jan. 23.—A report reached here late tonight that a terrific explosion of powder had occurred in Wilkes county on the line of the new railroad. A great quantity of rock was thrown up and fell upon men. Five were killed and 13 injured more or less seriously.

An Embezzler Sentenced. NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Henry M. Jackson, former paying teller of the sub-treasury, who ran away to Canada with $10,000 and was pleaded guilty to a charge of embezzlement a few days ago, was today sentenced to six years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000, the amount he embezzled.

The Caisson Horror. LOUISVILLE, Jan. 23.—The Coroner's jury considering the recent horrible caisson disaster returned a verdict tonight exonerating the contractors, and adding, "We believe said accident was the result of the men in the caisson becoming panic-stricken."

ORGANIZED LABOR.

Two Powerful Miners' Associations Amalgamated.

COLUMBUS (O.), Jan. 23.—The joint convention of the Knights of Labor and the Progressive Miners' Union met this morning. Roe of the Knights of Labor was elected temporary president and John McBride of the other organization vice president. The balance of the other temporary officers were divided. The joint Committee on Order of Business reported that no resolution on consolidation will be considered as adopted unless it receives a three-fourths majority vote of both organizations.

The discussion was opened on consolidation by John McBride, who strongly favored an open organization. Roe, on behalf of the Knights of Labor, spoke at length in favor of one organization with two branches. There was such a wide difference of opinion that the convention adjourned to give the joint committee further time to work.

Later in the day the joint convention adopted the plan of amalgamation. A committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and report tomorrow. A committee was also appointed to inquire into the question of machine mining.

The amalgamation of these two bodies makes one of the strongest bodies of organized labor in the country.

A GANG OF FIREBUGS.

Their Operations at Manila—Several Ships Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Two Deputy United States Marshals will board the bark Jennie Harkness on her arrival today from Cebu, Philippine Islands, with warrants for the arrest of the crew, now confined in prison, on the charge of having set fire to the vessel and having been at the head of an organized gang whose purpose it was to destroy every vessel loading at Manila.

Not long ago nearly every vessel loading at Manila suddenly caught fire, the flames bursting forth instantly from hatches and decks, as if petroleum had been spread over them. The attention of the marine underwriters of all nations of the world was called to this dastardly act. Many of the offenders were caught and punished, and the rest of their respective governments for judicial trials.

THE APACHE PRISONERS.

Opposition to Their Proposed Removal from Alabama.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The proposition to Congress to remove the Apache Indian prisoners from Alabama upon the suggestion of Gen. Crook, who favors the location of a part of those Indians at a place in Indian Territory and the balance to be set at liberty, has caused much comment in army circles. The opinion was forcibly expressed here today by one army officer that, if those Indians were now sent to Indian Territory, they would not be long in getting to New Mexico if not into Arizona. If those Indians are turned over to the people of Arizona, life will be unsafe and property, which in the past three years of undisturbed peace and tranquility has grown in value, would not be worth one-half its present value. If the Indian prisoners are unhealthy where they now are, at Carlisle and Mt. Vernon, it is chiefly on account of the condition in which they have been for years past.

THE MILE SQUARE.

More Trouble Between Settlers and Indians in South Dakota.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] A Pierre (S.D.) special to the Pioneer Press says: Trouble broke out again on the mile square between intending settlers and Indians. The latter anticipating the immediate opening of the reservation are cutting all the wood along the Bad and Missouri Rivers and hauling it back to the lands which they intend to take up according to the provisions of the Sioux Bill. The settlers think this an injustice to them, and hence the trouble. Today an attempt was made by settlers on the mile square to stop the Indians, and for a while it looked as though it would be a serious battle. Troops were hurried forward and sent the settlers back on the space allowed them. The Indians have already hauled off about a thousand cords of wood.

Western railroad officials now declare that they intend to hold the mile square, according to the treaty of 1879 with the Indians.

THE MISSING ERIN.

Supposed to Have Foundered—Eighty-seven Probably Lost.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Agents of the National Steamship line stated today that they have no additional information regarding the steamship Erin, which, it is feared, has foundered with all on board. The agents, however, still maintain that there is yet hope that the Erin may have made some port in a disabled condition.

The crew of 67 was shipped in Liverpool and the names are not known here, but Capt. Tyson was the commander and John Grant the first officer. Besides the regular crew there were 30 cattle men on board, 35 of whom were working their passage back to Liverpool, and were unknown to the agents. The other 15 were Americans.

Riotous Negroes Arrested.

APALACHICOLA (Fla.), Jan. 23.—The Es-cambia Rifles arrived last night, and guards are posted throughout the town. Thirty-five ringleaders of the negro strikers were arrested today, but the chief one cannot be found. One negro was shot today while fleeing from arrest. Intense excitement prevails, but it is generally believed that the arrest of the ringleaders will have a quieting effect.

Delayed California Mails.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The California mails to this city are still missing, and the postoffice authorities do not know definitely where they are. It is believed that they are snowbound. It is now four days since the last San Francisco mails arrived. They were of the 14th.

A Victim of "Grip" Suicides. NEWARK (N. J.), Jan. 23.—Gottlieb Muter, a civil engineer of this city, committed suicide this morning during a fit of temporary insanity produced by a grippa.

Raining at Stockton. STOCKTON, Jan. 23.—After a high wind from the south it commenced raining this evening with indications of a heavy storm. The roads are in bad condition, and business is dull, farmers being unable to get into town.

CLEARING TRACKS.

Railways Battling Against Snowdrifts.

Colfax Advances Indicate a Speedy End of the Blockade.

Reports at Sacramento Make the Outlook Almost Hopeless.

Sad Mishap to a Lady Passenger on One of the Snow-bound Trains—Union Pacific Again Blocked.

By Telegram to The Times.

COLFAX, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The rotary plow has reached within one mile of Towles. The track is free to that point from here. The company is making efforts to raise the blockade tonight, but it is very improbable that trains will move till tomorrow. Over twelve hundred men are at work between Alta and Summit. Forty-five engines have been released between those points. It is expected that No. 4, the westbound mail, will pass here at 6 a.m. tomorrow, and the eastbound trains held here and the consolidated will pass out. The only danger now is that a renewal of the storm between Alta and Summit may fill the tracks cleared in the deep cuts. Small snowdrifts occurred frequently beyond Alta during the day. One mile of track remains closed, and 700 men are at work shoveling out towards the rotary, which is coming.

A DISMAL OUTLOOK.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—According to present indications no prospects that the snow blockade in the Sierras, which has now lasted nine days, will soon be broken. This afternoon a rotary plow with four engines got stuck in the cut, near Shady Run. There are several cuts between Towles and Shady Run, where the banks are so high that the rotary will not throw the snow over the embankments. In consequence it tumbles back upon the track, burying the locomotive. There is nothing to do but to back for a distance and take a run at the formidable bank of snow.

Snow is falling on the hills again this evening, banking up in the cuts and covering the road. Indications are that the night will be a stormy one.

John Cogan, the operator at Cascade, who has been sick with pneumonia, died last evening.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Montana Claimants Before the Senate.

A Bill Reported Increasing San Francisco's Appropriation.

Senator Ingalls's Vigorous Plea for the Negro in the South.

A Report Presented in the House Seating a Republican Contestant from West Virginia, E. C.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—Mr. Vest presented the credentials of W. A. Clark and Martin McGinnis as Senators-elect from the State of Montana. They were read and referred, on Mr. Vest's motion, to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. On his motion also the four gentlemen claiming to be Senators-elect were admitted, pending the contest to the privileges of the floor.

The bill increasing to $200,000 the appropriation for a site for a public building in San Francisco was reported from the committee and placed on the calendar.

The Senate bill for the immediate appropriation of $500,000 for continuance of improvements at the mouth of the Columbia River was passed; also one to place Gen. Steneman on the retired list as colonel of infantry.

The Senate took up Mr. Butler's Negro Emigration Bill, and Mr. Ingalls addressed the senate. The following are extracts from Mr. Ingalls's address:

"On the threshold of our second century we are confronted with the most formidable and portentous problems ever submitted to a free people for solution. Complex and unprecedented, involving social, moral and political considerations, party supremacy and in the estimation of many (though not in my own) the existence of our system of government, its solution will demand all the resources and statesmanship of the present and of the future to prevent a crisis that may become a catastrophe. It should be approached with candor, with solemnity, with patriotic purposes, with fearless scrutiny, without subterfuge and without reserve. The line of cleavage between whites and blacks is becoming constantly more distinct and perceptible. Politically they are affiliated with the victors in the late civil war. Socially and by locality and residence they are associated with the vanquished. Fred Douglass, the most illustrious living representative of the negro race, once said to me that he thought as prejudice and social and political antagonism disappeared the races would blend, coalesce and become homogeneous. I do not agree with him. Such a solution would, in my judgment, perpetuate the vices of both races and the virtues of neither."

After praising the colored people for their fidelity to the South during the war, he said: "It seems incredible that gratitude should not have been extended to them from the hideous and indescribable wrongs and crimes of which they have been for a quarter of a century the guiltless and unresisting victims."

Mr. Ingalls went on to speak of the determination of the South to eliminate the negro as a factor from its political and social history, and quoted evidence on that point from Democratic neighbors and Democratic politicians. He particularly instanced the recent Jackson (Miss.) election, and quoted the statement that the election at Jackson was the most outrageous ever seen; that the towns had been taken possession of by troops, with rifles. It was said that Senator George's son was one of the riflemen.

Resuming, Mr. Ingalls said: "The pretext for this course of things all rest upon the fear of negro supremacy. To this nullification of the Constitution the people of the North have apparently consented. The South is standing upon a volcano. The South is sitting upon a safety valve. Already the mutterings of discontent by hostile organizations are heard. The use of the torch and dagger is advised. I deplore it, but, as God is my judge, I say no other people on the face of the earth have ever submitted to the wrongs and injustice which for twenty years have been put upon the colored men in the South without revolution and bloodshed."

Mr. Ingalls went on to warn the South of the natural consequences of its course toward the colored people, saying that despotism makes nihilists. Mr. Ingalls then spoke of an outrage committed at Aberdeen, Miss., on the day of Jefferson Davis's funeral, when a German tinner, a citizen of Indiana, accidentally, in the course of his work, let fall from a house roof a cable which had been stretched across the street by citizens, bearing an effigy of the Secretary of War, with the inscription, "Red Proctor, Traitor." For this accident the tinner was brutally whipped by one McDonald, receiving at least two hundred lashes, and being nearly blinded and terribly lacerated. McDonald was fined $30. Citizens subscribed twice the amount and he was discharged, the fine being paid, and for the broken whip they sought a railroad ticket for the victim and sent him out of town.

"It," continued Mr. Ingalls, "an outrage like that had been inflicted on an American citizen in England, France, Spain or anywhere on the face of the earth, and there had not been an instantaneous disavowal or reparation a million of men in this country would have sprung to arms to avenge the outrage and wrong. But the outrage was inflicted in Mississippi and the perpetrators go unwhipped of justice. Race antagonism is applied only to colored men. Were they all Democrats the race question would be over. Four solutions of the problem have been suggested, emigration, extermination, absorption and disfranchisement, but there is still a fifth solution which has never been tried, and that solution is justice. I appeal to the South to try the experiment of justice. Slack your guns, open your ballot-boxes, register your voters, black and white, and if after the experiment has been fairly and honestly tried it appears that the African race is incapable of civilization, if it appears that the complexion burns out him by the sun is incompatible with freedom, I will pledge myself to counsel with you about some measure of solving the race problem. But until then, nothing can be done. The citizenship of the negro must be absolutely recognized. His right to vote must be admitted, and the ballots he casts must be honestly counted. These are essential preliminaries, conditions precedent to any consideration of the ulterior and fundamental questions of race supremacy or race equality in the United States, North or South. Those who have the name of William Fowler, and on being searched $7.05 was found in his pockets. Fackler was booked for drunk, and locked up for safe keeping."

THE CORONADO EXCURSION
On Saturday Takes You From This Bitter, Chilling Cold, to Perfect Brightness and Sunshine.

Here, in Los Angeles, we have been suffering from unpleasantly cold and unusually disagreeable weather. The guests of the Hotel del Coronado are now enjoying the pleasures of the most perfect and genial peninsular climate. There every moment is enjoyable, either to the pleasure-seeker or to the invalid, as the evenness of the atmosphere is so agreeable and welcome to all. Do not forget Saturday's excursion.

RIVERSIDE FAIR.

The First Annual Fair of the Twenty-eighth District. The first annual fair of the Twenty-eighth Agricultural District Association will be held at Riverside, commencing Monday, February 10th, and continuing for six days. The Times is in receipt of tickets and the premium list for the event, which contains a liberal list of premiums. The fair will be held in the Lawrence Pavilion on Eighth street, and the floor area is much larger than for any fair before in San Bernardino county.

During the week the Editorial Association of Southern California will hold its regular semi-annual meeting at San Bernardino, and will be invited to attend the fair in a body.

On Friday of fair week the Fruit Dealers' excursion from the East will be in Riverside, and will visit the fair.

The liberal list of premiums promises to bring out a very fine display of the products of the soil of San Bernardino county, and the fair will be well worth attending.

Only where otherwise stated, all productions must be confined to San Bernardino county. An opportunity is given to orange and lemon-growers in any part of the United States to win the gold and silver medals. The association desires to have a competitive contest between orange-growers on sweet stock and on sour stock, and has appointed committees to arrange such a contest.

California Patents.
Hazard & Townsend furnish the following list of patents issued to residents of California Tuesday, January 14th:

Adjustable and removable armor for ships, Isaac B. Abraham; flexible shaft coupling, Frank W. Hixley; rock breaker, two patents, Miles B. Dodge, assignor to Park & Lacy; pump, George E. Dow; clipping machine, John W. Eisenhuth; crushing machine, Frank A. Huntington; filter, Edward M. Knight, assignor to Rapid Safety Filter Company; clip for wire-rope ways, Bartlett McIntire, assignor to Vulcan Iron Works; and rock breaker, James Spiers and E. H. Booth, all of San Francisco.

Railway switch, Edward A. Burgess, New Haven, Ct., assignor to C. S. Drake, San Rafael.
Windmill, William H. Keep, assignor of one-half to S. A. Hathaway, Stockton.
Wagon brake, George W. Pardee and G. and R. H. Leaman, Lower Lake.
Traction engine, Jacob Price, San Leandro.
Bottle stopper, James M. Schofield, Merced.

The Irrigation District Question.
The Anaheim Gazette, commenting on Judge Brunson's opinion on the objections of the Yorbas to the hearing of the petition of the irrigation district, says: "The opinion of Judge Brunson, published elsewhere, that the objections of the Yorbas to the hearing of the petition of the irrigation district are not well taken, will be hailed with delight by our citizens. Of course there never was a particle of doubt on the part of our people as to the final outcome of the case, but the several postponements of the hearing were not calculated to inspire much confidence in the indifferent success that had characterized the efforts of Mr. Shinn. Now that Judge Brunson has taken charge of the case, there is no doubt that a forcible presentation of his views will be made to the Court that the demurrer will be speedily overruled, as it should."

Will Not Shield Him.
There have been no developments in the Tom Cook case during the past few days. Cook is quite sick and will probably be sent to the County Hospital. When the Union League first discovered that Cook had made away with the club's funds it was thought best to keep the matter quiet, but on second thought it was given to the public through the newspapers. It is said that this is not the only instance in which Cook has been guilty of such conduct, and the club is not disposed to shield him.

Malignant Mischief.
Last evening about 7:45 o'clock a Chinaman named Ah Wing was brought to the police station by Robert Adams, living at No. 241 South Main street, who had him locked up on a charge of malicious mischief. Adams keeps a baker shop, and the Chinaman worked for him. They had a disagreement, when the heathen proceeded to smash up things before leaving the place. The case will come up before Judge Stanton today.

Foresters' Installation.
Court Temple of the Independent Order of Foresters was instructed last night by R. Mills, D.S.C.R., assisted by W. F. Harris, C.R., and M. Hoenig, R.S., of Court Los Angeles, and the following officers were duly installed: Charles Wild, P.C.R.; W. E. Rogers, C.R.; C. H. Case, N.C.R.; A. P. Johnson, R.S.; F. H. Crawford, F.S.; H. A. McLean, T.; H. G. Raymond, S.W.; J. N. Green, J.W.; E. D. W. Thomas, S.B.; W. C. Johnson, J.B.; J. C. Rockhill, Chaplain; Dr. L. Dearth, Physician.

Taken in for Safe Keeping.
Last night about 9:30 o'clock a man was brought to the police station that there was a drunken man in Bishop Mora's parlor, in his house on Main street, next to the cathedral, who would not leave. The patrol wagon was sent after the man, and he was taken to the police station, where he gave the name of F. Connolly, and was locked up, charged with being drunk.

The Tobacco Law.
The police have been instructed to enforce the law in regard to the sale of tobacco to minors under 16 years of age, and any one caught violating the law will be arrested and prosecuted.

A Demoralizing Business.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] There are numerous cigar stores in this city with poker-rooms attached, where free liquor is dealt out to their patrons. Why are they permitted? More young men are led astray by them than could possibly be by the regular licensed saloons. Furthermore, it is not right for any public place to deal out whiskey without pay, unless regularly licensed retail dealers. The time has come when a step should be put to it, and many legitimate dealers look to you to have it checked.

A LICENSED SALOON-KEEPER.
A new "high-toned" Democratic club is to be organized in San Francisco. It will be called the Manhattan Club.

A LATE LINE FROM HAYES.
The Corrective Properties of the Juices of California's Vegetable Alternatives Almost Sensational.

A lady formerly of 1221 Mission St., but now of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes to the Edwin W. Joy Co. as follows: "Mrs. H. T. Beverly, of Seattle, resided with me last winter. She had long been a sufferer from dyspepsia and waterbrash. Her stomach was so weak that for months at a time she lived principally upon milk and the white of eggs. Among other things she tried one of the mineral sarsaparillas only to find that it gave her pains in the head and stomach sinking spells. Having taken Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla myself with great benefit in stomach troubles, I induced her to discard the potato preparation and try your Vegetable compound. It began reliving her stomach and in a short time helped her astonishingly. It improved her appetite and strength to that extent, that just before she left, she was beginning to return to solid food. She authorized me to write you this statement accordingly."

EDITORIALS.

THE clouds are lowering.

MR. CHANNING, the Government observer in this city, states that a fierce storm is off shore, and that there is a possibility that it may reach us today.

The arroyo bridge between East Los Angeles and the arroyo should be rebuilt. The little valley leading up to Sycamore Grove is being built up with beautiful homes, and many bought there with the understanding that the city would see that they had a good road communication with the city.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA would seem to offer inducements to colored immigration. We have warmer weather than the plantation hands experience in the winters of the Carolinas, Virginia and several other States, while our large vineyards and ranches offer inducements in the way of labor. Good colored labor is far ahead of the coolie variety, as more of the proceeds remain in the country. Pasadena has a thriving colony of colored people, who are among its thrifty citizens.

VISITORS from the East are astonished at the Fourth of July indications that have cropped out here within the past few days. It is simply the Chinese new year celebration, and three days are as a rule given over to festivities. Chinatown echoes with the firecracker, fifty or one hundred packs released from durian viles in a flour barrel being a favorite method of conciliating the gods. Every housekeeper who has a Chinese cook or servant receives a present, and as a rule it is an expensive or beautiful one. Even the vegetable man gives his patron a gift of fruits or Chinese lilies. Much opium and saki is consumed, old debts are paid up and John starts on a new cycle.

THERE is one rule in THE TIMES' Pasadena department which is never broken. Matter of a personal nature reflecting upon any one in any way is never published unless the authority for it is the highest. The information regarding the Haas faith-cure matter came from the very highest authority.
The fact that Mr. Perret was willing to take a dying girl's word for it that she cared for nothing, as the Lord was her physician, shows that there is something radically wrong in Perret's judgment. It is time for the law to step in when the minds of men and women become so tainted with quack-ery or humbug that lives are jeopardized.

If the new park at Pasadena could have a lake, under the charge of Mr.
Edmund D. Sturtevant, something would be produced that would be an attraction indeed. Mr. Sturtevant is perhaps the best known specialist in aquatic plants in this country. It was through his exertions and influence that the city parks of New York were provided with water lilies and other rare attractive forms. Mr. Sturtevant has been experimenting with the various water lilies—the lotus and others—and finds that they do perfectly well in this climate; and now we hope to see every pond with its quota of these glories of pond life.

BREVITIES.

The air was unpleasantly raw yesterday.

The old residents scented rain in the air yesterday.

A band of jubilee singers is booked for Pasadena on February 3d.

E. C. Webster's handsome residence in Marengo avenue is being repainted.

And still we move. The overland was less than two hours late yesterday.

An important meeting of Godfrey
Post, G. A. R., was held yesterday evening.

Poppies are in order now, and the foolishness of town is the place to find them.

Anton Wyland has been granted a pension from the date of his discharge in 1864.

Lent begins on February 19th. Till then there will be a succession of social gatherings in and about town.

Local livermen pride themselves on being able to hitch up a double team in five minutes and then not hurry.

A train made up of a newly painted locomotive and four newly painted cars started running on the Santa Fe yesterday.

Fair Oaks avenue is being graded for some distance south of the Painter.
Roadmaster Wood has charge of the work.

Some enthusiastic tourists were heard yesterday to liken Pasadena to a "Garden of Eden." Perhaps they were not far wrong.

What a pity THE TIMES can't publish all the spicy scandal that comes to the ears of its representatives. But then, bless you, it would never do.

It is rumored that two strange females of bold demeanor attracted a more than needed amount of attention on the streets Wednesday evening.

South Raymond and Fair Oaks avenues are in a bad condition in many places, the damage done by storm-water not having been repaired.

Much needed repairs are being made under the direction of Superintendent Vore at the crossing opposite the Webster Hotel on South Raymond avenue.

Mr. Masters' talk this evening at the Universalist Church on "The People and the Post" will be an instructive occasion which all should take advantage of.

The Bunch of Keys was played before a fair audience yesterday evening in the Opera-house. Barring one or two of the important characters, the parts were poorly sustained.

The dance at the East San Gabriel Hotel last night was a brilliant occasion, and the many present among whom were some well-known Pasadenians and Raymond people, had a delightful time.

MR. PERRET'S DENIAL.

A STEPFATHER MAKES A SWEEPING ASSERTION.

The Story Published in "The Times" Concerning Miss Haas' Death Denounced as a Lie—But Others Still Talk.

Last yesterday afternoon about the time the TIMES reporter was breathing easy after the completion of the day's work, he was called on by a man who gave his name as John Perret. The visitor said he was the stepfather of Addie Haas, the 19-year-old girl who died Saturday evening of consumption.

The object of his visit, he told the reporter, was to have the whole report, as published in yesterday's TIMES, concerning the death of his stepdaughter denounced as "an infamous lie," or, as he expressed it, "worse than a lie."
The reporter referred Mr. Perret to a copy of the paper alluded to, and asked him to point out specific statements which were not true. This Mr. Perret refused to do. He said it was no use to go into details, for the whole thing was wrong and must be corrected.

The reporter argued with Mr. Perret that the article had only been published upon good authority, and that more than his unsubstantiated word would be required to disprove it. It was, however, agreed to make the following statement from Mr. Perret:

"I deny," said the interlocutor, "that my daughter was ever forbidden to take medicine that had been prescribed for her. She did not have constant medical attendance, but what she had was left at her own option. Not long before she died I asked her whether anything more could be done for her, and her reply was: 'No, the Lord is my physician. At one time we went her as far north as Oakland on the advice of a physician, but when she returned we saw she was no better, and that medicine would do her no good.
There are too many people down on us, who believe in a faith cure."

"The statement stands; but it will be further looked into by THE TIMES with a view to clearing it up beyond dispute.
Mrs. Perret's divorced husband, the father of Addie Haas, is still living, and it is asserted that he has resided recently at Mr. Perret's home, corner of Summit avenue and Illinois street, in peace and harmony with the other members of the family."

AT THE HOTELS.

Noteworthy Happenings at the Raymond and Webster.

A small party of gentlemen left the Raymond yesterday morning on an extended hunting expedition in the vicinity of Newhall.

The bowling match Wednesday evening proved quite exciting. Most of the participants were of the sterner sex.

About twenty-five couples will be present at the German next Monday evening. It will be one of the leading events of the season. The favors will be especially handsome and the figures
new and pretty.

The tennis players are making the most of these clear days and indulge in their favorite sport both morning and afternoon. Some pretty contests are witnessed almost daily between Miss Marsh and Miss Linn.

Tomorrow night the full-dress box
Among the late arrivals are: Edward Everett and wife, J. S. Campbell, New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bowen, Miss Griffith, Miss Bowen, San Francisco; George W. Brown and wife, George C. Peckham and wife, St. Louis; Mrs. D. Weese, Mrs. J. F. Davies, Los Angeles; H. W. Hawley, Minneapolis.

THE WEBSTER.

The first and second floors are now comfortably heated with steam—a rare convenience in California hotels.

The Bunch of Keys Company put up yesterday here.

Animated discussions are now in order among some of the guests as to the relative advantages and importance of New York and Chicago. The weighty question remains unsettled.

A number of the attaches of the house are off duty—not taking a vacation, but down with la gripe.

Yesterday's arrivals were: A. C.
Miller, H. H. Yarrington, J. W. Hunt,
Los Angeles; P. Bartlett and wife, S.
B. Bartlett and wife, L. S. Watson and wife, L. C. Hutchins and wife, Philadelphia, Pa.; H. M. French, Boston; H. Thistlethwaite and wife, Richmond, Ind.; W. B. Small and wife, Toronto; William N. Parker, Taunton,
Mass.; E. F. Pulsifer, Chicago; Miss Clara Simpson, Philadelphia; H.
Chevallier, Mr. Tust, Los Angeles.

Foot-ball Meeting.

At a meeting of the foot-ball club
Wednesday evening, action was taken with reference to numerous important affairs relating to the club's interest.

Among other things it was decided to sublet the privileges of the newly-furnished bicycle clubrooms on Colorado street for $5 a month, that being the rental asked by the wheelmen.

The series of three games to be played with the University eleven of Los Angeles was also discussed, but the time for the first game was not determined upon. It will, hardly, however, be played tomorrow.

VALLEY HUNT NOTES.

The club at a late meeting voted to give a tournament every year.

Mr. J. W. Outwater has presented the club with three fine greyhounds.

The kennels of the club will be removed to the arroyo at an early day and enlarged for the accommodation of a pack of greyhounds.

Mr. Huges and W. S. Gilmore were elected members of the club at the last business meeting. This fills the membership allowed by the constitution, 75.

The young hounds of the club have already killed a number of foxes, and a few days ago took their first wildcat.
They will probably rid the hills of these enemies of chicken ranchers.

The club and its members own some of the finest dogs in the State—foxhounds, pointers, setters, St. Bernards.
A bench show given by the club would be a show indeed.

The annual hunt ball will be held at an early date, the parlor of the Webster being used. The room will be handsomely decorated with flowers,
the club color, red, predominating,
and with trophies of the chase, crops,
bits, etc.

When the dogs are in shape the pack
will hunt certain days in the week,
the dates of which will be announced to members by the masters of the hounds, so that they can enjoy the music if so disposed, and extend the courtesy to their friends.

Coursing with greyhounds is the fashionable sport in the East at present. Mr. Perry Belmont is the president of a New York club. Jacks are caught in Kansas and taken east for the purpose. This has caused a renewed interest in greyhounds all over the country, and there are a good many $2000, $3000 and $5000 dogs.

PERSONAL.

Col. W. A. Ray left yesterday for Chicago.

Mr. King, the prominent cable system projector of Chicago, was in town Wednesday.

Judge Van Doren is on the streets again. He was hit hard by the prevailing epidemic.

Mr. F. Martin Summers was down town yesterday for the first time after a severe attack of la gripe.

A small party of Raymond guests saw Roland Reed in The Woman Hater
last night in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Austin of the Postal Telegraph
Company is again at the instrument.
Her ailment was also la gripe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Julian E. Carey and Miss Marie regret their departure to San Francisco, where they think of residing permanently. Mrs. Carey and Miss Marie left yesterday, preceded several days
by Mr. Carey.

Aleck Linn, Miss Linn and Miss Brown of Southern California spent a portion of yesterday afternoon looking about Pasadena, and all expressed themselves as delighted with the place. It is likely that Miss Linn and Miss Brown will decide to remain here
the rest of the winter.

The Rapid Transit.

PASADENA, Jan. 22.—(To the Editor of THE TIMES.) Let us view briefly the history of rapid transit railroads in this vicinity.

Ever since the founding of the city of Pasadena the interests of the people have demanded frequent and rapid transportation to and from Los Angeles. Frequent public meetings were held agitating the necessity of having such accommodation. The subsidizing of the Spence road was advocated and even a home company was formed, but in failure, for Pasadena was still without rapid transit. At this time, when public spirit was at its lowest ebb, appears Capt. Cross with his plans to build and equip just such a road as is needed, and to run hourly trains at a low rate of fare. All this without any subsidy asking, only the good-will and encouragement of the people.

Has he received this encouragement? From the beginning his work has gone steadily forward with a large force of men and of teams.
The most substantial bridge over the arroyo has been built, the grading is nearly completed, the track is being laid, the locomotive and cars are in Los Angeles, and with fair weather the prospects are that trains will be running within the next weeks. All this notwithstanding the injunction suits and the extra expense caused by the unprecedented rains.

Santa Fe News.

A theater train will run to Los Angeles tonight. It will also be run next Friday evening, which will give our people a chance to take in the closing Emma Juch concert. If a guarantee of 60 persons is obtained a train will also be run either Wednesday or Thursday night of next week, when Juch appears respectively in Faust and William Tell.

Round-trip excursion tickets will be sold for regular fare one way to Santa Fe Springs on the 29th to those who may desire to attend the corner-stone laying at Whittier, previously announced in THE TIMES to take place on that day.

The Pasadena Teachers' Institute
will be held at the Wilson Grammar School Saturday, January 25th, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Dr. Le Roy D. Brown, lately president of the Nevada State University and formerly State Superintendent of Ohio, will address the institute on "Loyalty in the Schools." There will also be talks by Supt. Will
S. Monroe and Mrs. Clara A. Burr.

The Alaska Business Men's Association, recently organized in San Francisco, through its representative at Washington, will endeavor to have commissioners to Alaska appointed who have interests in the Territory.

CITY BRIEFS

The Christian Adventists have organized a church in this city.

Home C. Katz is no longer a member of Los Angeles Union, No. 48, N.S.G.W.

A special meeting of the Council is to be held at 2 p.m. today to consider re-nomination measures.

James R. Robson, a native of England, was admitted to citizenship yesterday by Judge Van Dyke.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to F. A. Martin of Glendale, aged 37, and Ollie Cole of Tropic, aged 23.

It is reported that negotiations are in progress for the Pacific Cable Company to take the second-street cable road, reconstruct and operate it.

On account of illness, Prof. Dickinson's lecture at Unity Church this evening has been postponed until next Tuesday evening, the 28th inst.

A State-division convention is to be assembled at Santa Ana tomorrow. Dr. J. P. Widney and Maj. E. W. Jones have been designated as delegates from this city.

The pupils' musicals, postponed from last week, will be given this evening in the parlors of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 556 Main street, near Fifth.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for Mrs. Mary E. Collins, Mrs. K. Kirby, Charles H. White, Fred Cox, J. H. Wilson, Angel Farsi, S. W. Garretson and C. C. Briggs.

Seven of the carriers of THE TIMES are down with the grippe, and it is necessary to supply their places with new recruits. Subscribers who find an irregularity in delivery are requested to exercise forbearance and send notice to this office.

There was but one arrival at the County Jail yesterday, E. Alvetor, who was brought in from Los Nietos by Deputy Sheriff Payoreno, and locked up on a charge of burglary. At 7 o'clock last evening there were 109 prisoners in the tanks.

Commodore Williamson Dunn of the Santa Fe road, who served nearly four years in the navy, has just received information that the sum of $892, back pay, has been allowed him by the department at Washington. So much unexpected wealth threatens to turn the Commodore's brain.

Since THE TIMES published its illustrated article on the source of the grippe, with antidotes and remedies therefor, there has been such a run on the drug stores for menthol inhalers that the stock has entirely given out. There has been a big sale for camphor, but there is still some left.

The ashes of Dr. John K. Bartlett, who was cremated at Los Angeles recently, were sent through the mails to a friend in Milwaukee. They were contained in a small rosewood box which was buried in Dr. Bartlett's family lot in the latter city. The Doctor was a graduate of Yale and a physician of high standing.

A few nights since, several horses were killed near Pomona by the Southern Pacific train. It seems that the animals broke down the pasture fence and made their way to the track. There were four horses killed. Two belonged to a Mr. Martinez and the others to the Vejar boys.

Nothing of importance transpired in the police courts yesterday. Ten cases were disposed of, mostly of a trivial character, of which Judge Stanton had eight and Judge Owens two. Judge Owens has been under the weather for the past two weeks from an attack of the grippe, but is able to be about.

The case of Lizzie Miller, charged with keeping a house of prostitution, which was to have been tried before Justice Austin yesterday morning, was continued to Tuesday morning next at 10 o'clock. The prosecuting witness, Ella Pierce, was too sick to testify, and as S. M. Payton, Esq., attorney for the defense, was busy in another court, the continuance was granted.

It might be well to state that there has been no trouble with the county chain-gang since the second day they went out, some three weeks or more ago, when Jailer Darcy delivered his ultimatum of no work, no food, which was duly published at the time. The Express published this fresh information yesterday afternoon, only three weeks late.

PERSONAL NEWS.

PEOPLE'S STORE.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS FOR OUR REMNANT DAY.

The Cost of an Article Cuts No Figure in the Price Asked for It on Our Odd and End Day.

LOS ANGELES, FRIDAY, JAN. 24, 1890.

Weed them out! Friday is our usual remnant and odd end day. But coming as it does now, in the middle of the season, when we are reducing our stock, weeding out the slow-sellers and getting rid of winter goods, it offers extra inducements as a remnant day. We never keep anything hanging around until it will sell at a profit. If it won't bring a dollar we mark it 50c. If that won't move it we make an advertising leader of it, and sell it for less. The cost don't enter into consideration at all; it cuts no figure. Goods are worth exactly what they will bring and not a cent more. In these times of unusual dullness people will not part with their hard-earned money except something unusual is offered. Our sale today offers those inducements, because we have placed among our odds and ends several lines of goods which are called for every day, and which never run so low that we wish to close them out. They are extra inducements for you to call. This is the last day but one of our great gift sale. Cups and saucers, glassware and chinaware still being given away free.

Look out for us on Monday, another surprise is in store for you.
